Honolulu, HI - Hawaii Human Resources, Inc. (HiHR) has promoted Christy Johnson to Director of Human Resources. In addition to overseeing the Client Relations department, Johnson will manage all internal and client human resources administration.

“Given the company’s exponential growth, it makes sense to establish the position as we continue to hire new employees,” said Johnson, who brings a decade of HR management expertise in benefits administration, recruiting, employee relations, and training to HiHR.

“Christy is an invaluable asset to the team, and is changing the way Hawaii approaches the human resources business,” said HiHR CEO and President Matthew Delaney. “Christy’s industry experience and warm interpersonal skills contribute to the impressive way she manages our clients’ expectations. In this complicated and sensitive arena, her attention to detail sets her apart.”

“It’s an honor to work for people who trust and support your career growth goals,” added Johnson. “And when a company is transparent and ethical, it’s easy to do the right thing for the client.”
